

Annual Sports Day – N.L.Dalmia Institute of Management Studies and Research

N.L. Dalmia Institute of Management Studies and Research held its Annual Sports Day on November 26, 2023, at Loknete Gopinatha Munde Shakti Ground. The event was filled with enthusiasm and sportsmanship, as students from the first and second years participated in a variety of sporting activities. The event was organized by the Cultural Committee, headed by Preyash Gada, Akshat Sisodia, Tanshu Jain, and Anugraha Shaline Matthews, and led by faculty members Prof Dr. M.R. Koshti and Mr. Lawrence Bing.

Teams for various sports were created on November 4, 2023 by the NLDIMSR cultural committee. The captains and vice-captains were selected for each team, and they were responsible for choosing their players. The captains and vice-captains were made aware of all the rules and regulations for the selection process, such as the number of players to be on each team and the rules and regulations of all the sports. There were a total of six teams: Blue, Black, White, Green, Red, and Yellow. Each team had 30 members, 21 of whom were male and 9 of whom were female. This was done to promote gender balance and a mix of senior and junior students.

The following sporting events were held:

- Sprint Races: Students showcased their speed and agility in exciting sprint races. The cheers from the spectators added to the adrenaline-filled atmosphere.
- Relay Race: Team spirit was on display during relay races, where students collaborated to pass the baton efficiently.
- Kho Kho: This traditional Indian tag sport is played between two teams. It emphasizes speed, agility, and strategic teamwork.
- Dodgeball: This high-energy team sport involves throwing balls at opponents to eliminate them. It promotes fast-paced action and teamwork.
- Volleyball: This dynamic team sport is played with six players on each side. The goal is to score points by sending the ball over the net and into the opponent's court.

The Annual Sports Day was a great success. It was a day of fun, competition, and camaraderie for all involved.
